

AVALANCHE GAMES RULES

- 1) Participants must read all rules prior to registering.
- 2) Participants must pay all registration fees upon registration.
- 3) Participants must read the waiver online during registration and acknowledge it.
- 4) Participants must read and sign the waiver in person on the day of the event they are registered for.
- 5) Only recreational users can enter Avalanche Games. Voting members of the Canadian Avalanche Association who hold "Avalanche Practitioner" or "Avalanche Professional" titles cannot compete.
- 6) Participants are eligible to enter both events.
- 7) Participants must be aware of where to locate and how to use the existing ERP.
- 8) Participants may not preview the competition site, acquire information from others beforehand or during the events, or attempt any type of scope or knowledge acquisition prior to their scenario/event. If event organizers or volunteers are made aware of this attempt to cheat, participants will be disqualified and forfeit their registration fee.
- 9) All winners must collect prizes in person or at the designated pickup location after the weekend of the event.
- 10) Winners of event #1 – "Individual Rescue Skills" will be posted on the morning of February 19, 2023 at the Eagles Pass cabin and prizes can be claimed there that day at the main staging area. Winners will also be posted on the Skadi Foundation website and a designated prize pickup location in Sicamous will be specified.
- 11) Winners of the event #2 – "Group Rescue Skills" will be posted on the evening of February 19, 2023 at the Eagles Pass cabin at 5:00 PM and prizes can be claimed at the main staging area. Winners will also be posted on the Skadi Foundation website and a designated prize pickup location in Sicamous will be specified.
- 12) Foul language, booing, heckling, and any attempt at distracting or altering the outcome of other competitors is strictly prohibited and will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the event organizers or volunteers and a forfeit of the participants registration fee.
